

The shoulder eye is the core of pork shoulder. It undergoes a brief corning before being made into a sausage of approximately 1 Kg. It is seasoned for about two months before being ready to be eaten in thin slices, like the beef “bresaola”.
(Ingredients: pork shoulder eye, salt, pepper).

